The Third Annual Conference on Communication Networks and Services Research (CNSR2005) will be held in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Monday, May 16 – 18, 2005 at the Citadel Halifax Hotel. This annual conference is jointly sponsored by Dalhousie University, University of New Brunswick (UNB), Université de Moncton (UdeM), and the Atlantic Canada Opportunities Agency's (ACOA) Atlantic Innovation Fund (AIF). The proceedings from the CNSR2004 conference have been archived in the IEEE Xplore<sup>(R)</sup> Digital Library. CNSR2005 is sponsored in cooperation with the IEEE Computer Society's Technical Committee on Computer Communications (TCCC).

TECHNICAL TOPICS

Technical papers describing original research in the field of communication networks and services are invited. Topics and areas to be presented at the conference are listed below. However, papers outside these areas are also welcome with a requirement that they describe current original work in the fields described, either theoretical or applied and have not been published elsewhere. Both industrial and academic contributions are invited.
